

MAYOR

Leonard Church

City Manager

L. Steve Kennedy

City Clerk, CMC

Debra Taylor

COUNCIL

Mayor Pro-Tem John Dowdy

Cindy Giles

Bruce Jenkins

Mark Mathews

Bill Thrash

MEDIA RELEASE

Contact: David Layman
(770) 424-8274

“Folk Tales of the Rails” brings storytelling and adventure to Kennesaw

Kennesaw, Ga. (Sept. 20, 2007) – Set your compass towards the historic train Depot in downtown Kennesaw on Saturday, Oct. 13 for the 13th annual Folk Tales of the Rails, a rip roarin', rootin'-tootin' good time with loads of storytelling, folklore, music, crafts, poetry and entertainment.

The event is free and is scheduled from 4 to 9 p.m.

Gather 'round a campfire or ride in the comfort of a hayride wagon as you journey through time to meet rustic cowboys, Civil War soldiers, Native American storytellers, fearsome pirates of the Caribbean, legendary heroes of medieval England, and even come face-to-face with General James Oglethorpe, founder of the colony of Georgia.

Observe living history, marvel at colorful, costumed characters and listen to master storytellers weave tales inspired by fact and fiction. Surprises, thrills and treasures are sure to abound everywhere you turn.

Food will be available for purchase.

Folk Tales of the Rails is presented by the City of Kennesaw Parks & Recreation Department. For more information, visit www.kennesaw-ga.gov/pkrec or call (770) 422-9714.

###

